

Celsius Shipping is seeking an Operations Manager for our fleet of container vessels.

As Operations Manager in Celsius Shipping in Copenhagen, you will be part of a strong, highly skilled & experienced team. Our vessels are traded worldwide, and your dedicated work and decisions will have a direct impact on the bottom line. You, and the Operations team, are considered "key persons" in our endeavors to optimize the results.

Duties and responsibilities

- Have close personal contact with our Charterers as well as Technical Managers, Captains, and other service providers worldwide.
- Work closely with our Chartering Department as well as our in-house accounting team & Legal department.
- Operate our fleet of container feeders employed on T/C to the major liner companies.
- Liaison for Commercially managed fleet.
- Ensure optimal operations and value creation for Celsius Shipping and our customers.

Requirements for the position:

As a person you are efficient and energetic with a good team spirit. You can communicate with all layers across the organization, including international partners. You are determined and structured and enjoy delivering high quality work.

- Fluency in English and Danish language.
- Previous experience with operating container vessels.
- Have a commercial mindset that shows, when you strive to impact the results of all the fixtures/voyages you operate.
- Have a financial mindset and previous experience with hire statements and owners' expenses.
- Are a team player that contributes to knowledge sharing across the company.
- Hold a Danish work permit.

Celsius Shipping is a fully integrated shipping company with focus on special opportunities in dedicated shipping segments. Together with international partners, Celsius Shipping has built a presence within Chemical Tankers, Product Tankers, Container and LNG Carriers via timely acquisition of assets, and with dedicated focus on attractive opportunities for expansion within our existing businesses.

We ensure a versatile job environment where no day is the same and where priorities can shift quickly. Celsius Shipping is a dynamic company undergoing a lot of growth, this requires good communication skills and ability to assess and adapt work processes on an ongoing basis.
